

Food & Farm WORKSHOPS

Anyone Can Cook

with Chef Margo Wilburn

Monday, August 13th, 5:30-8:30 pm at the Canaan Valley Fire Hall Fee: $16; includes your dinner!

"How could I describe it? Good food is like music you can taste, color you can smell. There is excellence all around you. You need only to be aware to stop and savor it."

-Chef Gusteau, from the movie Ratatouille

Some artists paint, sculpt, sing, dance, or act. Then there are those who cook. And, we're all for art that we can eat! But, you don't need to be a professional chef to whip up a delicious dish. Whether you're a Linguini or a Gusteau, the kitchen doors are wide open for experimentation. Nobody knows this better than Remy, the littlest chef with the biggest dreams. So, throw on your apron, dust off your measuring cups, and let's get cooking. After all, anyone can cook (and just as importantly, anyone can eat)! This workshop will be hands on and includes your dinner!

Chef Margo was trained at Le Cordon Bleu, has a small catering business called Sweet Angel's Catering and will be leading the kitchen at Rudolph's in Thomas, when they open this year. Her passion and love of food is deeply inspired by Julia Child.

Please REGISTER, no later than Thursday, August 9th: info@phffi.org or stop in at the Highland Market to sign up. Pre-registration is required.
